

Lifestyles of the Mich(iana) and Famous

Some remarkable and renowned people have called Michiana their part-time home. Like the kid in the photo at right--he wound up on the U.S. Supreme Court.

There was the Pulitzer Prize winner who liked to sunbathe nude, perhaps to upset his neighbor, a minister.

And the elegant old gentleman greeting folks as he strolled around Union Pier was arguably the greatest track athlete of his era, who did major damage to Nazi myths of Aryan supremacy with his Olympic dominance.

Saturday, August 29th/Sunday, August 30th

See the latest documentary from The Region of Three Oaks Museum about prominent and interesting folks who've had second homes in our area.

Screenings will take place in the Old Township Hall (8 E. Linden St. in Three Oaks) on Saturday Aug. 29 and Sunday Aug. 30 at 4 and 6 EDT each day.

To keep everyone safe, seating will be limited and masks required. The movie's producer/director, TRO TOM Board Member Nick Bogert, will be on hand to answer questions about the documentary.

To reserve a spot, email us at trotommuseum@gmail.com. Let us know how many seats you'd like and for which show-- Saturday at 4, Saturday at 6, Sunday at 4, or Sunday at 6.

Suggested donation-- $3 for Museum members, $15 for nonmembers (that includes a membership).

All proceeds support The Region of Three Oaks Museum.
